

NOW HIRING! RESEARCH ASSISTANT Spring '24: CT SCANNING & FISH ANATOMY

Applications due December 8!

Generate 3D models of shark anatomy, contribute to comparative anatomy manuscripts, and upload 3D models to online data repositories of CT data. Pays $16/hr, up to 8 hrs/week.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Strong interest in comparative anatomy and/or ichthyology
- Ability to work on the project for 2-8 hours per week
- Familiarity with basic computing (file types, organization of files)
- Ability to read and understand scientific literature

TO APPLY, upload an unofficial transcript, cover letter, and a resume to Job #8439756 on Handshake.

Questions?

Contact Allison.Bronson@humboldt.edu

NOTE: This position is funded by the Learning Aligned Employment Program (LAEP) and students must meet eligibility requirements. Contact Financial Aid for more information.

